

Highlights of Accomplishments and Impacts FY08

Successful Workshops and Information Exchange

- Implementation of IPv6 (with IEEE) 12/12/07
- The Search Imperative: It's Changing Nature, Continuing Impacts (with NFAIS) 11/14/07
- Harvesting and Metadata Exchange
- Digitization Exchange (policy and operations)
- Production/Performance Measures
- E-gov Reauthorization
- Web 2.0
- Terminology Management and Web 3.0
- Regular Agency Showcases

Thought/Policy Leaders Meet with CENDI

- ➔ Mike Nelson, Visiting Professor, Georgetown University
- ➔ Mark Hyer, Vice President, Higher Education Publishing, ProQuest
- ➔ Neal Rambo, Visiting Program Officer for Library Support for Research and e-Science, ARL University of Washington
- ➔ Tom Ward, Principal Associate, Commonwealth Center for High Performance Organizations
- ➔ Susan Turnbull, Senior Program Advisor, General Services Administration
- ➔ Clifford Lynch, Director, Coalition for Networked Information
- ➔ Michelle Springer, Project Manager, Digital Initiatives, Web Services Division, Office of Strategic Initiatives, Library of Congress
- ➔ Haym Hirsh, Director, Division of Information and Intelligent Systems, National Science Foundation, and Professor of Computer Science, Rutgers University
- ➔ Adam Sedgewick, Legislative Aide, Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs

Information COPs Successfully Partner with CENDI

- NFAIS
- NKOS
- IEEE
- OCG Forum
- FLICC Preservation and Digitization Working Group
- National Digital Strategies Advisory Board, Working Group on Digitization Specifications
- DHS

Connected with Broad Base of Organizations

CATEGORY	# Participants
Legal and Policy	3
Legislative Branch	3
Judicial Branch	2
Executive Mission	40
Interagency	2
Non-gov't Organizations	19
Academia	4
Private	35
International	9

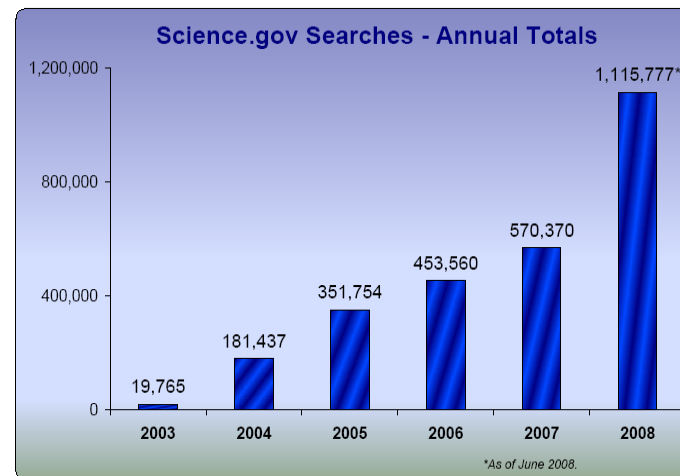

Total ~ 117

Science.gov's Continued Success

- From 2003 to 2008, Science.gov annual search totals increased by 5545%.

As of June 2008, Science.gov annual search totals have increased by 96% over 2007.

Forms the basis of WorldWideScience.org

CENDI Meritorious Award

2008

John Sykes of EPA was nominated in recognition of his service as Deputy Chair from 2005-2008, his efforts to promote CENDI within EPA, and his enthusiasm for learning from and sharing with his colleagues with the goal of improving EPA and the federal Scientific and Technical Information environment.

No picture available

Acronyms

ARL – Association of Research Libraries

COPs – Communities of Practice

DHS – Department of Homeland Security

EPA – Environmental Protection Agency

FLICC – Federal Library and Information Center Committee

IEEE – Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers

NFAIS – National Federation of Advanced Information Services

NKOS – Networked Knowledge Organization Systems

OCG – Office of General Council